An opportunity has arisen for an enthusiastic and administratively strong individual to join a small Christian organisation in support of their current work and hopes to extend this into new areas.

This post is ideally suited to a local person wishing to develop an understanding of a small independent organisation, it's funding requirements and administrative needs. The additional hours may supplement work you are already doing along these lines and the post will give you further insight into Highlands & Islands Youth for Christ if you wish to pursue a career in admin or youth-work.

It would be important that you knew something of the organisation and were sympathetic to its values and goals.

Closing date for applications: 21-09-18 For an application go to:
